I came to Annie Wright as an 8th grader: shy, awkward and totally unsure of my choice in school. I walked into the Middle School and was immediately greeted by bright, enthusiastic faces who were so excited to have me joining the class. This is how I knew that I fit at Annie Wright. From that day on, the vibrant, animated, and effervescent mood of this school has kept me here, loving that I can call myself an AWS student. These characteristics are what we as a yearbook staff wanted to reflect in our book: electrifying colors that show how energetic and bubbly the atmosphere is that vibrates up and down the halls every day. In the pictures you will see how full of life the student body is and how involved with all aspects of the school everyone is. The diversity of our community creates a unique connection between people from all countries and fosters relationships that stand the test of time. Having these bright, vivid colors will allow this yearbook to withstand the test of time, never failing to bring back memories of your days at Annie Wright.

The freshman class ('13 yellow ties) were accompanied by Crysta Swarts, Tamra Sherwood, and four senior red tie ambassadors (Stephanie Gann, Lauren Siverly, Hee Won Chang, and Tia Wright) for their freshmen orientation this year. They enjoyed camping in Sequim, WA while hiking at Hurricane Ridge, walking on the beach, playing class bonding games, and performing skits. It was a great opportunity to get to know everyone and make new friends before starting the academic year.

On November 4th, the fourth and fifth graders performed their annual musical. This year's show was "Wonka Jr." which is the musical version of the classic children's story "Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory" by Roald Dahl. The story is about a boy named Charlie Bucket who finds a golden ticket in a candy bar. The ticket grants him access into Willy Wonka's candy factory. Little does Charlie know that Willy Wonka is actually searching for an heir to his chocolate kingdom. The students had the opportunity to audition for lines and solos in the musical, but every student contributed in some way to the musical.

On Saturday January 16th 2010, a handful of Annie Wright Upper School Faculty bravely performed the annual Murder Mystery. This year's theme was "The Science Fair of Death." The performance began in the Great Hall with the murder of Mr. Sidman's character. The group then gathered in the Dining Hall for dinner and a fashion photo shoot of the Science Fair contestants, as well as the murder of Mr. Fortney's character. Students then gathered in the Kemper Center Theatre for the final act of the performance before moving back to the Great Hall to vote for who they suspected was the killer. The final three consisted of Mr. Swenson, Jake Guadnola, and Chrissy Wakeling. The students cast their votes and the killer was revealed. The students who guessed Jake Guadnola as the murderer won a photograph signed by all the faculty who participated that night.

Founder's Day

January 25th, 2010 marked the 126th anniversary of the founding of Annie Wright School. Every year, the celebration begins with a special chapel commemorating the history of the school. The Head of School gives a speech promoting the values we want to continue to uphold at Annie Wright. The chapel is highlighted by an all school performance of the Alma Mater with a focus on the Upper and Lower School Choirs. Also, during lunch, the senior class shares a traditional cake with four small trinkets baked into it, said to predict the future of the girls who find them.

This year's All School Play was Our Town by Thornton Wilder, was a story about living life to the fullest and not waiting until it is too late to take advantage of what life has to offer in small town Massachusetts. With a cast ranging in age from Kindergarten for to twelfth grade, they spanned the age gap to put on a marvelous show. The cast worked on this production for over three months and all of their hard work paid off with four performances in mid-February.

PILLOW FIGHT!

Every year, the Lower School celebrates Shrove Tuesday by coming to school in their pajamas. Along with getting to relax in their PJs all day, the Lower School also has pancakes and sausages for lunch. What makes these pancakes special is that in some of the pancakes there is a hidden piece of carrot; those who find the piece of carrot in their pancake win a candy bar.

In February, the 2nd and 3rd grade classes performed a musical all about the food pyramid and healthy living styles. The purpose was to promote physical activity and positive eating habits among the Lower School. The students wore outfits that they would normally wear while doing physical activity. Students had the opportunity to sing solos and present lines if they wanted to. The whole production gave the 2nd and 3rd graders a fun opportunity to learn more about their bodies and the best way to take care of themselves.

A colorful calendar for the month of April, tilted at an angle. The calendar features a grid of days with various colored squares (pink, orange, yellow, green). Two photographs are placed on the calendar: one of a smiling girl with braids on the left, and another of two people on a rope swing on the right. The date 4/19/10 is marked on the first row, and 4/28/10 is marked on the last row. The word "April" is written in large, bold letters at the top.

1st Place:
Geoffrey DalBalcon

On March 19th, the second grade class participated in their annual airplane toss in the Kemper Center gym. The airplane toss is the culminating event to a unit the second graders do on flight and aerodynamics. Each second grader builds their own airplane which they use in the competition. While parents and fellow students stand by and watch, the teachers stand above the gym and toss the airplanes down into the gym. The first, second, and third airplane with the longest distance wins a prize. The winners receive kits to build a model airplane, the first prize winner getting the largest plane-building kit. This year's first prize winner was Geoffrey DalBalcon. It's a great way to have fun and learn about aerodynamics!

"It
it. Hooray!"

On April 16th, the 3rd grade class participated in the annual egg drop. Each student designed and created a container so that their egg would survive the drop from the tower. Mr. Fassler read the student's name before the egg was dropped. After, the student ran to retrieve it and opened the package to reveal if the egg had survived or not. Parents, faculty, and students gathered to watch at the Cloister. In all, 30 of the 35 eggs survived!

CLUBS!

CLUB

ART CLUB: Advisor - Mr. Weir. They worked on various art projects in many mediums. Some of their work has been on display throughout the school.

ANNIE'S ANGELS: Advisor - Tiffany Shaw. They spent time in and out of activity period working on community service projects benefiting non-profit organizations in and around the Tacoma area.

GARDEN CLUB: Advisor - Mr. Swenson. The Garden Club spends every Friday planting and maintaining the gardens on the side of the school. They are sure to be blooming this spring!

INKWELL: Advisor - Mr. Swenson. This year The Inkwell will print 6 issues. They have overcome many issues with the network to bring the news to Upper School students.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB: Advisor - Madame Lartey. The International Club hosted both International Week and International Festival and spent time learning about other cultures.

FACTS

YEARBOOK: Advisors - Mrs. Weston and Mrs. Levenson. We did something new this year (and not recommended) and built the yearbook entirely from scratch.

MASQUE PLAYERS: Advisor - Annie Green. This year Masque Players took a more competitive approach to their talents and participated in many competitions, including State.

CHORUS: Advisor - Mr. Orr. The Upper School Chorus performed more than 5 times this year and competed in the Heritage Festival in Vancouver, Canada.

FILM MAKING: Advisor - Mr. Huffines. In its reformation as a Tuesday/ Thursday club, the members of Film Making made various short movies and shared them with the rest of the club.

DEBATE: Advisor - Mr. McCool. Debate had Mary Bradford, Mina Saudagaran, Sonia Vora, Elizabeth Ferrie, and Mallory Kaniss qualify for the State Competition and Sonia Vora qualify for the National Competition.

Amber,

We are so proud of you. We love you so much!

I have this little angel. For me she left her wings.
She has no idea how much happiness she truly brings.
She brightens up my days with her smiles and her laughs.
She helps me to remember all the blessings that I have.

When she sees someone is sad, it opens up her heart.
She wants to do all that she can, she wants to do her part.
She'll squeeze away the sorrow and make me forget about my pain.
She shows me where the sun is when we're hiding from the rain.

Love, MOM, DAD and Ashley

It's Electric

This edition of the Annie Wright School Shield was published by the AWS yearbook staff during the 2009-2010 school year. Three hundred fifty copies of the 148 page book were printed by Jostens Publishing Company in Topeka, Kansas. This year's cover featured designs created by the editors and a Jostens artist. The cover was a custom litho with process color #317 and gloss lamination. The color endsheets were bright yellow #107. The yearbook was designed using Adobe Photoshop Creative Suite 4 and Jostens' Yearbook Avenue. The price of the book was $55.00 before December 1, 2009 and $65.00 after. The yearbook staff would like to thank all who helped complete this book: Trevor Photography for the senior spade photo and Herff Jones Photography. Many thanks to Elizabeth Parker and Leita Hill of Jostens Publishing Company. We would also like to thank the students, faculty and staff of AWS because without your input and co-operation, this yearbook would not have been possible.
